

ROLLINS NOW IN IT! His Case Was Commenced Early This Morning.

A Jury at Last Found After a Great Struggle.

WHAT SOME OF THE WITNESSES SAY

People Who Come and Go—Brief Provisions of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

The court room was this morning crowded, and the crowd seemed to want to know what would be done. After a scramble, and the usual affairs of lawyers had been gone through with—the following jury was finally obtained.

J. L. Culbertson.
W. J. Copley.
A. L. Thacker.
S. S. Couch.
H. Umstead.
H. P. Markham.
J. W. Mangum.
Philip Crompton.
J. S. Jackson.
A. J. Lloyd.
H. S. Barbee.
C. A. Jordan.

At the table on the left sat the prisoner —Messrs. Boon & Parker, Maj. W. A.
Guthrie and J. S. Manning. His father sat just across, and nervously watched the jury—wondering if his son was to be convicted for murder—would the child he knew and whom he had raised from boyhood be found guilty—and would Cap Rollins step upon a gallows and be hanged.

On the right sat W. W. and F. L. Fuller, Solicitor Parker, and the father of the murdered man.

A. A. Sears came as the first witness.
He appeared for the prosecution—or was called by them. Fuller examined. Sears saw Rollins at his livery stable, at five o'clock. He came from a Chinese laundry and remained about fifteen minutes.
Fuller wanted Sears to tell what was done. Parker objected. Fuller wanted to know that Rollins had made threats and was arrested. Sears was allowed to tell what happened. He thought he was out of humor. Rollins went on to say that he would throw off the Chinaman's water from the city works—the Chinaman threatened and he was not afraid—he had a good pistol. The judge could not see where the Chinaman's water had anything to do with it. Rollins said he was a policeman in Smoky Hollow and would keep things straight there. The judge wanted to know if the Chinaman got killed. Being informed that Ah Sin still lived the judge thought that enough had been heard of the Heaten Chinese.
Rollins said that he had cleaned out Smoky Hollow once, and would clean it out again. Sears didn't see his pistol.
Dick Happer and Rollins left. W. W.
Wilson was there. The question came was Rollins drunk or sober—between 5 and 6 o'clock—Sears thought he was half seas over.

By defense.
Sears knew that Rollins was a special policeman; Sears in late years did not know Smoky Hollow's boundaries; He knew that its reputation was bad—very bad. Sears stepped out.

A. E. Lloyd, by prosecution: Lloyd keeps a hardware store—generally known—Rollins was in his store about 7:30 o'clock the evening that Jones was killed; Rollins was alone; Rollins bought two cartridges, three chambers being loaded; 38 calibre; Smith & Wesson; double action—blue; Lloyd loaded pistol because he feared an accident and thought defendant was intoxicated; Rollins left.

Defense: Nothing of importance was brought out here.

W. H. Currell: He remembered the night that Jones was killed; Rollins was in Norwood's bar; bought a pint of whiskey; the bottle fell from Norwood's hand and broke it; took two small drinks, and then bought another pint; he asked another man to go to Smokey; said he had a pint; he afterwards fell against Currell and knocked him down; he thought he was very drunk.

Defense: He said he was a carpenter; he always went there; he drank nothing; he always stops because the man was dirty; he had told Manning that Rollins broke the bottle—and he swore that Norwood broke it; he also said that he had sworn once that a man sold whiskey and the jury acquitted him. This by Parker to prove witness' general character.

Prosecution: John W. Jones was called.
Lived in Person county; brother of Sandy

Jones; Sandy was 22; Sandy got a pint of whiskey and all went to Smokey; went to Nan White's. He then detailed the matter entirely different than when he was before the coroner's jury; said Rollins just pulled out and shot him—giving that as his authority for being a policeman.

Jones was rather mixed about somethings in the matter of directions—as he was on strange grounds. He went with his brothers, Sandy and Charley, to Smokey to have some fun. Parker wanted to know if Jones did not know that he broke a panel of the door. Jones claimed that he only tapped it. The evidence was nothing of any importance.

C. H. Norton was called: He knew the character of the witnesses

Henry Pope: He knew Jones; lives within a mile and half.

AS WE GROW.

The Boom Now on Those Who Are in the Procession.

Now that it is given up by every one that a big boom is about to be inaugurated in Durham and that property is compelled to advance to double and treble its present value, it is the duty of every man, old or young, who expects to ever own a home, to secure it now while it is within his reach.

Dr. J. L. Watkins is building houses on very desirable lots and selling on easy terms to a number of our young business men. If you want a home, and what man or woman does not? See Dr. Watkins and even on a small salary he will make it possible for you to own one.
